1. INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES:

- (i) The candidates must appear in person at the time of counseling.
- (ii) The candidates must report for counseling at 9.30 A.M. in N.N. Dastur Auditorium, ICAR-NDRI, Karnal and mark attendance. Those reporting late will have to register arrival time as late entry in the attendance register and will be considered for counseling as per latest situation of seats available at that time. The seats already filled up will not be disturbed in such situation.

2. THE CANDIDATES APPEARING IN COUNSELING MUST BRING THE FOLLOWING:

- (i) All original certificates with mark sheets related to class 10th onwards, Copy of admit card, Character Certificate, Migration Certificate, SC/ST/PH/UPS/OBC category certificates (Annexure III & IV) as published in Information Bulletin. In case of candidates, whose Master's degree is awaited then the candidate may bring the letter from the Registrar that the degree will be issued before 31.7.2017, otherwise the candidate will forfeit claim for admission and will not be considered for seat allocation.
- (ii) Immediately on offer of admission candidates will be required to deposit part Admission Fee (non-refundable) of Rs.5000/- at the time of counseling By Debit Card/Credit Card or Bank Draft in favour of "ICAR Unit NDRI Karnal" Payable at "NDRI Karnal". The balance amount of fee would have to be deposited by the candidate to the university on the date of registration as prescribed by the university.
- (iii) In case the seats are exhausted before all the candidates called for personal appearance are covered, the allotment will be stopped and the Institute will not be responsible for the non-availability of seats and non-allotment to the rest of the candidates on this account.
- (iv) The candidate who has participated in the counseling but did not succeed to get seat and desires admission later on out of any consequential vacancy should submit request for admission through waitlist.
- (v) The request for admission through wait list will be considered, provided vacancy arises within the time limit of student-registration for admission. If the candidate does not submit such a waitlist request at the time of counseling, it will be presumed that candidate is no more interested in admission and no request thereafter, will be considered.

3. IN-SERVICE CANDIDATES

The candidate must be fully sponsored by his/her employer. Admission shall only be granted on submitting the sponsoring certificate from the employer, otherwise candidate will forfeit claim for admission.

4. THE FOLLOWING WILL BE THE MODE OF COUNSELING FOR ADMISSION OF CANDIDATES IN PH.D. PROGRAMMES FOR THE ACADEMIC SESSION 2017-18.

- (i) The candidates will be called for counseling on a given date & reporting time. The candidates will mark their attendance on arrival and will be considered for counseling. Those reporting late will have to register arrival time as late entry in the attendance register and will be considered for counseling as per latest situation of seats available at that time. The seats already filled up will not be disturbed in such situation.
- (ii) The candidates belonging to PH category will be called first and offered seat against the category to which they belong. The seats for PH category will be filled within the overall number of total seats in each programme. If the number of PH candidates available is more than the number of reserved seats for PH category then 1) the admission will be restricted to one seat per group and 2) priority will be decided based on marks obtained in the qualifying examination as merit rank of different groups/disciplines can not be used for deciding inter-group/interdisciplinary merit of candidates.
- (iii) The candidates belonging to Under Privileged States (UPS) not having any State Agricultural/Veterinary University, will be called after the counseling of candidates belonging to PH category and offered seat against the category (i.e. SC/ST/OBC/Gen) to which they belong in the relevant programme. If the number of UPS candidates available is more than the number of reserved seats for UPS then priority will be decided based on marks obtained in the qualifying examination as merit rank.
- (iv) The candidates belonging to other reserved categories will be called in order of ST, SC and OBC after the admission of PH and UPS candidates is over.
- (v) The seats in SC and ST categories are interchangeable and in case candidates of SC/ST categories are not available, the seats thus remaining vacant will be filled from general category. Similarly, if the candidates from OBC category are not available, the same will be filled from general category.
- (vi) The general category candidates will be called after the counseling of candidates of above categories is over. The reserved seats left vacant, if any and the vacant seats for unreserved category will be filled-up from the general category in the order of merit.
