Livestock Development Programme at Namsai, Arunachal Pradesh under NEH programme of ICAR-NDRI, ERS, Kalyani on 12-13th Feb., 2020

Two days awareness programmes on rearing of dairy cattle, demonstrations and distribution of various inputs like piglets, ducklings, livestock feed, vitamins supplements etc. in village of Namsai KVK, Arunachal Pradesh were jointly organized by ICAR-National Dairy Research Institute (NDRI), Eastern Regional Station (ERS), Kalyani, West Bengal and Namsai KVK, Arunachal Pradesh on 12-13th Feb, 2020 under NEH/TSP projects. The team from ICAR-NDRI, ERS, Kalyani, West Bengal were Dr. M. K. Ghosh, Dr. S. K. Das, and Dr. A. Mandal participated the programme. A total of 110 farmers from Namsai village participated in this programme. Dr. M. K. Ghosh, Head (Actg.), NDRI, Kalyani briefly described about purpose of such program and prospect of dairy farming in north eastern region. In this program, farmers were appraised about the recent advances of scientific animal husbandry practices and benefits of integrated farming system. A total of 40 Piglets, 2400 kg Pig feed, 300 kg poultry feed, 600 ducklings and feed supplements were distributed among farmers in this camp. Detailed interactions between scientists and farmers were held, by which farmers of village were benefited.